Reminders

Error Corrections

Target date for error corrections is September 30. Errors must be addressed prior to submitting attendance and disabilities data. LEPs can generate error reports through the reports tab of the EIS website - survey.fpg.unc.edu/educareis/.

Data Entry for 2022-23

Data for the 2022-23 school year should be completely entered by July 31. This includes children, classrooms, classroom characteristics, staff classroom assignments, assessments, observations, and parent surveys.

Teacher IDs & DECAs

If your site is able to, please remember to include the ID of the teacher who administered the DECA on the assessment form

Assessment Reliability Videos

If you have not yet sent assessment videos for review this school year, please do so. Let us know if you have questions

At our last meeting...

LEP-NEP Community of Practice - 7/14/23

The network welcomed a new member of the LEP team at Educare Lincoln - Amy Napoli!

Allison DeMarco led the group in thinking about building a culture of accountability and how to apply self-assessments to their sites doing DEIB work.

The National Evaluation team lead a discussion about the possible change from the PPVT-4 to 5. Keil outlined updates to the EIS website that allow sites to generate their own error reports and begin their attendance/disabilities processes on their own time.
